Demonstration of Household Electricity.

ON our seventh floor we have arranged a most interesting and practical demonstration of the many uses of electricity when applied to household convenience, comfort, and economy.

A seven-room flat has been furnished, each room showing many clever electrical devices.

That for illuminating purposes electricity is without an equal has long been an established fact. But the uses of electricity did not stop when its illuminating powers were discovered.

We are now demonstrating that your home may be lighted, heated, all your cooking, and a great many household conveniences may be done by clean, safe, instantaneous, and inexpensive electricity.

This electrical kitchen will be a revelation to all home makers. Supplied with an electric oven, electric broiler, electric grill, electric tea kettle, electric double boiler, electric coffee percolator, electric chafing dish, &c.

The work of cooking is brought absolutely to the minimum. Turn the switch, and in a few minutes you have a hot oven, a boiling kettle, a hot broiler, &c. and there is no danger of burning before they are done.

Special demonstration of Electric Cooking by an expert every morning from 10:20 to 12:30. Afternoons, 3 to 5 o'clock.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

President and Mrs. Roosevelt Visit Cosmos Club.

PRESENTED WITH PAINTING

Artist H. C. Best Rewards Executive Admirer of View from Yosemite Valley—Minister from Norway and Mme. Hauge Sail for Europe. Baron Rosen Entertains.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt were guests yesterday morning at the Cosmos Club, at a private view of a small exhibition of pictures of the Yosemite Valley and the Grand Canyon, painted by H. C. Best, which were shown at the club from November 6 to 9.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Garfield were others who were accorded a private view of the pictures, they having arrived just as President and Mrs. Roosevelt were leaving.

Mr. Best and his wife, who was Miss Annie Rippey, were married in the Yosemite Valley, under the Bridal Veil Falls, by Rev. Luther Freeman, in 1901. They will sail November 23 on the Moltke, via the Mediterranean route, for Southern Europe, where they will spend the winter.

The picture which the President admired the most, "Evening on Mount Shasta," was presented to him by the artist.

Mr. William Low, of Brooklyn, is the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Watson, of the British Embassy, at their home in Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins and her daughter, Miss Katherine Elkins, returned from Hallehurst, their country place at Elkins, W. Va., last evening. Miss Elkins will go to New York to-day, to be the guest of Miss Eloise Stevenson Kernochan, whose marriage to Mr. Alexander Butler Duncan will take place November 20, and at which Miss Elkins will take part.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer, of New York, have returned home, after a visit to Mrs. Schaffer's parents, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Strauss.

Miss Hinds, sister of Mrs. Cortelyou, has arrived in Washington, and will, as usual, spend the winter with the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Cortelyou.

The Minister from Norway and Mme. Hauge sailed yesterday from Europe, and will be gone most of the winter, their plans having been entirely changed by the death, last summer, of Mme. Hauge's son, Master Frederick Joy. They had planned a gay winter in their beautiful new vacation home in Massachusetts avenue, which has just been completed.

Baron Ambrosy, counselor of the Austrian Embassy, who went to New York last week to meet the Austrian Ambassador and the Baroness Hengelmüller, on their return from Europe, has come back to Washington in order to superintend the getting in readiness of the embassy in Connecticut avenue for the reception of the Baron and Baroness Hengelmüller, who will return here the latter part of the week.

The Russian Ambassador, Baron Rosen, was host at an informal luncheon yesterday for his guest, Baron Schlippenbach, Russian consul at Chicago. Prince Koudachoff and M. de Thal were among the party, which lunched at the Metropolitan Club.

Mrs. Eldridge Jordan was hostess at a most enjoyable luncheon yesterday at her home in Seventeenth street, complimentary to Miss Henrietta Fitch, daughter of Chief Engineer Henry W. Fitch, U. S. N., and Mrs. Fitch, who is to be one of this season's buds. Covers were laid for twelve, and huge yellow chrysanthemums were effectively used for table decorations. Invited to meet the honor guest were Miss Carol Newberry, daughter of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and Mrs. Truman Newberry; Miss Constance Hoyt, daughter of the Solicitor General and Mrs. Hoyt; Miss Eleanor Ridgely, daughter of the Comptroller of the Currency, William Barrett Ridgely; Miss Katharine Leech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frederick Leech; Miss Sadie Murray, daughter of General Arthur Murray, U. S. A., and Mrs. Murray; Miss Vera Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Downing, and Miss Mary Scott, all buds of this winter, and Miss Esther Denny and Miss Carey Crawford, two of the most attractive young women, who made their bows to Washington society last winter.

Representative J. E. Harding and Mrs. Harding, who were recently married in Cincinnati, and who spent their honeymoon in the Berkshires, have leased an apartment at the Highlands, where they will spend the winter.

An exceedingly pretty home wedding took place last evening, at the residence of Mrs. May E. de Putron, at Falls Church, Va., her daughter, Miss Edith S. de Putron, and Mr. Wilbur Alexander Speakman, of Philadelphia, being the contracting persons. The service was presided by Rev. Mr. Summerville, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

RECENT ARRIVAL IN WASHINGTON.

SENORA CREEL, wife of the Mexican Ambassador to the United States, who will figure in Washington society this winter.

friends only, but was followed from 7:30 to 9 by a large and brilliant reception. The marriage ceremony was performed in a bay window which was decorated in altar effect with chrysanthemums and palms, clusters of white satin bells being suspended from the center. The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in flowers throughout the entire first floor of the residence, except in the dining-room, where pink was used.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. William Balderson, of this city. Mrs. L. Percy Daniel was her sister's maid of honor. Mr. L. Percy Daniel was the bridegroom's best man, and their little girl, Audrey Virginia Daniel, as flower girl, preceded the wedding party to the altar.

The wedding gown was of white batiste, over a taffeta slip. Irish crochet lace was elaborately used in the waist trimming, and was introduced about the skirt. A full tulle veil, caught to the hair with a wreath of orange blossoms, completed the becoming costume, and the bride's bouquet was a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The groom wore a white tuxedo, and the bride's gown was of white batiste, over a taffeta slip. Irish crochet lace was elaborately used in the waist trimming, and was introduced about the skirt. A full tulle veil, caught to the hair with a wreath of orange blossoms, completed the becoming costume, and the bride's bouquet was a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cleveland Perkins, who have spent the summer abroad, have arrived in New York, where they will spend some time before returning to their residence in Connecticut avenue.

Second Assistant Postmaster General James T. McCleary left Monday for Chicago, where he will join Mrs. McCleary and return with her to Washington.

Among the present season's debutantes will be Miss Helen Durant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durant, who will be introduced at a tea at the home of her parents on Wednesday, December 4.

The marriage of Mrs. Mae Hamilton Wilson to Mr. Henry Spencer Powell was solemnized last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hamilton. Only a family party and a few intimate friends were asked to be present. Mr. Hamilton escorted his daughter, and gave her hand in marriage, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward A. Buckley, assistant pastor of St. Matthew's Church. There were no attendants except Mr. Walter Powell, of Cincinnati, who was his brother's best man.

An artistic arrangement of golden yellow and white chrysanthemums, intermingled with ferns, palms, and autumn leaves, was used in the construction of an improvised altar, which had as its background a large mirror, in which the soft light of wax tapers, which stood at each side in tall candelabra, was reflected. A white satin priedieu, where the couple knelt to receive the blessing of the Roman Catholic Church, stood at the foot.

The wedding gown was of princess lace over chiffon and taffeta, fashioned on modified empire lines, and becomingly touched with white satin. The bride's bouquet was a cluster of purple violets and orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell left Washington later in the evening for an extended wedding trip, and upon their return to the city will take up their residence at the Westmoreland. Mrs. Powell wore for traveling a smart tailored suit of London smoke broadcloth, and a hat of the same shade trimmed with roses, in tone shading from pink to red. Russian pony furs completed the costume.

Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. R. G. Powell, an aunt of the bridegroom, who came from England to be present at the wedding. Others included Mr. Wins Wilson and Mrs. Lafayette Hamberlin, of Richmond, Va.; Mrs. George Bourne, of Montana; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Powell, of New York; Mrs. J. M. Anderson, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Powell, of New York; Mr. Edward Berrall, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mr. T. C. Powell, and Mr. W. B. Powell, of Cincinnati.

The Swastika Club will give a dance Friday evening at Mrs. Dyer's Hall, starting at 8:30. The committee comprises Mr. H. G. Kneissl and Mr. A. A. Fenderson.

A linen shower for the benefit of Providence Hospital will be given the afternoon of November 26 from 4 to 7, at the hospital, under the management of Mrs. Allen G. Capron.

Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Taylor have announced the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Baird, and Mr. M. Hillman Taylor, of Trenton, Tenn. The wedding will take place in this city in January, the date to be announced later.

Miss Taylor is the youngest daughter of Senator and Mrs. Taylor, and Mr. Taylor, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Taylor, is a nephew of Mrs. S. W. Williamson. He is a graduate of the law department of Vanderbilt University.

NOTED PIANISTS ENTERTAIN. Hutcherson and Randolph Illustrate Ensemble Playing at Columbia.

Ernest Hutcherson, the great Australian pianist, and Harold Randolph, the head of the Peabody Conservatory of Music at Baltimore, appeared at the Columbia Theater yesterday afternoon in one of their ensemble piano recitals, such as have won them laurels and brought such delight to music lovers in the Eastern musical centers. In spite of the fact that the audience was very small, the artists were accorded hearty applause, and their programme was enjoyed thoroughly.

These two players are responsible for the revival of ensemble playing in America, and the performances they have been giving in the East have been striking examples of what can be done in the hands of two artists so splendidly endowed with technical skill, and who play in such perfect unison and sympathy and spontaneous dynamic thoroughness. Their programme was as follows:

Sonata in D major.....W. A. Mozart
Allegro con spirito.
Andante.
Allegro Molto.
Variations.....C. Saint-Saens
On a theme by Beethoven.
Impromptu.....C. Schumann
On a theme from Schumann's "Mantel."
Dance Macabre.....C. Saint-Saens
Arranged for two pianos by the composer.
Symphonic poem, "Les Preludes".....Franz Liszt
Arranged for two pianos by the composer.

Mr. Randolph has been director of the music department at the Peabody Institute since 1888, and is there surrounded by a brilliant staff of teachers, at the head of whom is Ernest Hutcherson. Both are making piano music a life study.

Ambassadors Received. The President yesterday received Baron Rosen, Russian Ambassador; Enrique Creel, Mexican Ambassador, and Mrs. Creel, and Luis Anderson, minister of foreign affairs for Costa Rica.
